

Media Release

Tuesday, May 31, 2016

Town of Devon Chief Administrative Officer recipient of the 2016 Society of Local Government Managers Award of Excellence

Devon, Alberta. – The Society of Local Government Managers (SLGM) and Brownlee LLP presented the prestigious 2016 SLGM Award of Excellence to Tony Kulbisky, Chief Administrative Officer for the Town of Devon on May 19 at the SLGM Awards Banquet and Ceremony held at the Delta Lodge in Kananaskis Village.

The SLGM Award of Excellence recognizes the efforts, contributions and continuing learning process individuals make in their pursuit of excellence and desire to have a positive impact on or in their community in relation to the field of local government management.

Nominees are judged on criteria that include the continued pursuit of education and or professional development, exemplary service and dedication in the field of local government management, their impact on the profession of local government management, and attendance at the Municipal Administration Leadership Workshop and Awards Ceremony.

Annually, each board member along with representation from the firm of Brownlee LLP, have the challenging task of reviewing the individual nominations for this prestigious award. Paul Stocco, the partner at Brownlee LLP who presented the SLGM Award of Excellence, commented that, “Based on the information provided in support of Tony Kulbisky’s nomination, it is clear that Tony is a fitting and deserving recipient for the 2016 SLGM Award of Excellence. His work in the field of local government management was adjudged to be exemplary. Brownlee LLP is pleased to have been part of conferring this prestigious award on Tony Kulbisky. Congratulations and well done Tony!”

“The SLGM in Cooperation with Brownlee LLP is honoured to offer the SLGM Award of Excellence to Tony Kulbisky” says Chair Tim Timmons. “On behalf of the board, staff and members of the SLGM, we offer our congratulations to Tony for his many contributions to his community, municipality and to local government.”

The SLGM Award of Excellence is presented at the Awards Banquet during the Annual Municipal Administration Leadership Workshop by a member of the firm of Brownlee LLP. The award consists of a keepsake bronze buffalo crafted by Diane M. Anderson, Tymarc Art Studio along with a cash award of $3,000 to be spent on a continuing education course of study.

-30-

Media Contact:

Candyce Neill, Communications Coordinator

780-987-8302 cneill@devon.ca